À MONTRÉAL

Montreal, February 13, 2017 — On March 4, 2017, Heritage Montreal's Youth committee and the Maison de l'architecture du Québec are pleased to invite you to the 60s! Re-visit Expo 67's epic modernism in Jean Drapeau's dusky living room. Sift through slideshows and artifacts of the Expo's eccentric pavilions and colossal infrastructures that inspired visitors and put Montreal on the world stage.

PRACTICAL INFORMATION

This evening is offered free of charge and will be presented on Saturday, March 4, 2017, from 7:00 p.m to 1:00 a.m., at the Maison de l'architecture du Québec. The event will be in French.

The Maison de l'architecture du Québec, located on 181, Saint-Antoine Street Ouest, is on the side of the Palais des Congrès, near Place-d'Armes metro station.

ABOUT HERITAGE MONTREAL

Since 1975, Heritage Montreal has worked to promote and to protect the architectural, historic, natural and cultural heritage of Greater Montreal, its neighbourhoods and communities. A private non-profit organization, Heritage Montreal is at the heart of an extensive network of partners, working through education and representation to celebrate, develop and preserve Montreal's identity and uniqueness.

ABOUT THE MAQ

The Maison de l'architecture du Québec (MAQ) artist-run centre has been a catalyst for architectural creativity since 2001. It promotes the development of architectural culture in Quebec and Canada in line with today's practitioners through exhibitions, laboratories, publications, workshops, discussions and educational activities. Located at 181, Saint-Antoine Street W. in Montreal, it features two exhibition spaces and advocates for the recognition of urban planning and landscape architecture as major art forms and an essential part of everyday life.
